INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC CONVENTION ON PHILIPPINE LITERATURE IN SPANISH

Organizer:

Universidad de Malaga (UMA) José Manuel de Torres Perea. Coordinator of Project Erasmus+ CBHE CALESA. Coordinator Erasmus K-171 UMA-Philippines

Description:

The University of Malaga is organizing this convention from 2 to 3 November 2023 in Malaga (Spain). Its objective is to highlight the value of Philippine literature written in Spanish in order to emphasize its connection with the Spanish-speaking community and its relevance in the Asian context.

Thematic axes:

The conference is intended as a continuation of the International Symposium "Literature in Spanish in the Context of Hispano-Asian Studies", which is based on the thematic axes that presided over the symposium:

- Books and travel diaries.

- Literary relations between the Philippines, Spain, Spanish America and the rest of Asia: chronicles of writers, embassies and cultural visits, reviews, literary criticism and correspondence.

- Hispanic origins of genres of Philippine literature in other languages: korido, komediya, drama, drama simboliko, etc.

- The genres of Philippine literature in Spanish.

Journalism: Spanish-language newspapers, their contributors and audiences.
