

I. Spanish Criminal Law evolution from the 1848 Penal Code to the 1995 Penal Code and its later reforms. The structure of current 1995 Penal Code: General part and Special Part. José Luis Díez Ripollés. 1 hr.

Index.

1. Codification in Spain before 1848.
2. 1848 Spanish penal code.
3. 1870 revised Spanish penal code.
 - a. Its foundations.
 - b. Its structure.
4. 1928 Spanish penal code.
5. 1932 revised penal code and the 1933 Malefactors and Vagrants Law.
6. 1944 revised penal code and its successive reforms under Franco's dictatorship.
7. Reforms on the penal code after 1977 restoration of democracy.
8. New 1995 Spanish penal code.
 - a. Its law-making process.
 - b. Its foundations.
 - c. Its structure.
 - i. Preliminary Title.
 - ii. Book one. General part.
 - iii. Book two. Special part.
9. Reforms on the 1995 Spanish penal code, specifically in 2003, 2010, and 2015.
10. Specific criminal legislation outside the penal code.
 - a. Juvenile justice.
 - b. Penitentiary law.
 - c. Other specific criminal legislation.

II. Basic principles of Criminal Law. The current structure of criminal liability in Spanish Criminal Law: Categories and contents. José Luis Díez Ripollés. 2 hrs.

Index.

A. Basic principles of criminal law.

1. Social control and crime control.
2. The principled foundation of criminal law and its juridical tools:
 - a. Principles on interests to protect.
 - i. Legal interests (legal assets). Endangered and harmed legal interests.
 - b. Principles on criminal liability.
 - i. Criminal norm and criminal offence.
 - c. Principles on sanctions.
 - i. Penalties and preventive measures.
3. Sources of Spanish criminal law.
4. Legality principle.
5. Temporal and spatial framework of Spanish criminal law.
 - a. Principles on retroactivity of criminal provisions.
 - b. Territoriality and other principles.

B. Structure of criminal liability.

1. Features of the analytical concept of crime.
2. Classification of criminal offences.
3. Human action.
 - a. Concept
 - b. Causation.
 - c. Omission.
4. Definition of crime.
 - a. Concept
 - b. External elements of crime.
 - i. Types of elements and structures.
 - ii. Objective attribution of results.
 - iii. Common and special crimes.
 - c. Internal elements of crime.
 - i. Intent
 - ii. Negligence.
 - iii. No strict liability.
 - d. Omission crimes.
5. Wrongdoing.
 - a. Concept
 - b. Justification grounds.
 - i. Self-defence.

- ii. Necessity.
 - iii. Exercise of right or abidance of duty.
 - iv. Consent.
 - c. Graduation of wrongdoing.
- 6. Guilt (Blameworthiness)
 - a. Concept and excuses.
 - b. Accountability.
 - i. Insanity.
 - ii. Intoxication.
 - iii. Syndrome of abstinence.
 - iv. Perception disturbances.
 - v. Minority.
 - c. Mistake of law.
 - d. Exoneration of law abidance.
 - i. Necessity
 - ii. Insurmountable fear.
 - iii. Relatives concealment.
 - e. Graduation of guilt
- 7. Need of liability adjudication.
 - a. Concept
 - b. Mitigating circumstances.
 - c. Inviolabilities and immunities.

13. Drug-related crimes: Judicial interpretations on small-scale drug trafficking and drug consumption. Harm reduction policies. José Luis Díez Ripollés. 1 hr.

Index.

A. Judicial interpretations.

1. The evolution of Spanish case law on drugs.
2. Consolidated interpretations.
 - a. Consumption of drugs and possession for consumption.
 - b. Growing for consumption.
 - c. Shared consumption
 - i. Rationale.
 - ii. Acquisition for common consumption.
 - iii. Reciprocal invitation in consumption.
 - iv. Substance donation for simultaneous consumption or among partners.
 - d. Compassionate donation to addicts by close relatives.
3. Non-consolidated interpretations.
 - a. Growing, distribution and consumption within consumers' associations.
4. Proposed interpretation.
 - a. Questioning the harmfulness of cannabis consumption and trafficking.

B. Harm reduction policies.

1. Concept.
2. Distribution of syringes in prisons.
3. Safe facilities for consumption.
4. Substitutes drugs dispensation by Health administration.
5. Controlled dispensation of drugs by Health administration.