CALESA NEWS

On this edition of CALESA's newsletter our goal is to disseminate and celebrate the great results achieved in the second semester 2022 and the first 2 months of 2023 and highlight the next activities we have planned until July 2023.

Incredible Results

Seminar: Innovation of University Teaching in a Digital, Multilingual and Globalized Society: A perspective from the Project Erasmus+ CBHE CALESA

The event which took place at NOVA School of Law between 19 and 21 Sept 2022 was opened by the Ambassador of the Philippines in Portugal and was followed by a dialogue between the President of the Supreme Court of the Philippines and a Counselor Judge of the Portuguese Constitutional Court. Representatives of the various partner institutions presented papers and lectures on studies, shared experiences and good practices on innovation in university education from the perspective of the CALESA project. Seminar 2.4 – Seminar on Current Challenges and Common Values: Fostering Regional Integration within the ASEAN (30 Jan – 3 Feb 2023)

The seminar was hosted by AdMU with the aim of filling a gap in the different undergraduate and postgraduate syllabus in Filipino partner Universities. Professors from UMA, DEUSTO, AdMU and NOVA School of Law conducted lectures on ASEAN and other regional integration cases such as the European Union and on the interrelation of the former on substantive issues in the universal sphere (UN).
